APPENDIX.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MISSIONS.

With gratitude to God we note an interest in our mission work which has not heretofore obtained in the bounds of the Kentucky Conference. As never before our people are praying for the enlargement of the Master's Kingdom.

Rev. H. O. Moore reports the Middlesboro District in advance of what it was last year. A number of the charges have made a heroic effort to support the ministry. This we regard an encouraging sign and indicative of a better future for them.

The schools at London and Campton will aid greatly, we trust, in our mission work in the Middlesboro District. The corner-stone of the "Sue Bennett Memorial School" was laid at the former place with appropriate ceremonies on June 23, 1896, by Bishop E. R. Hendrix. It is thought by the Building Committee that this building will be completed and the institution will be opened by the first of January, 1897. This school calls for thanksgiving to God for the life of Miss Sue Bennett who conceived this enterprise and whose hands inaugurated the work. Let each stone be laid with the benediction, "grace unto it." From London we look to see the forces of an educated christian life emanate which shall aid in the speedy evangelization of the mountains of Kentucky.

The Campton school is also a new enterprise and one which we expect to become a factor in our work in the Middlesboro District.

The school at Point Burnside, in the Danville District, is our youngest child and one of great promise. These infant children of our Methodism should receive our nurturing care.

We would not fail to mention the missionary territory in the bounds of the Covington District. Two years ago Dr. H. P. Walker was put in charge of this District. He planned for aggressive mission work in the cities of Covington and Newport, where we have but three churches, and in the adjacent towns of Ludlow, Bellview and Dayton where Southern Methodism is unknown. Owing to protracted sickness his plans were not executed. The Presiding Elder of this district should enterprise at least three or four missions in the places named, and give his undivided time to his work.

We congratulate the pastor, members and friends of Epworth Church in Lexington on the erection of their church building without debt, the increase of their membership, and the encouraging outlook.

With peculiar pleasure we call attention to the following from the Secretaries of the Parent Board: "Our China Mission is in the midst of a wonderful revival; our Japan Mission is growing steadily, and the Korean work opens with the brightest prospects. Our brethren in Mexico and Brazil have just held Missionary Conferences, which have been full of blessing and promise. Never in the history of the church have such magnificent opportunities been offered. The whole heathen world is undergoing readjustment. Never since missionary work was first enterprised have such vast possibilities been brought within the reach of the missionary. Our leaders on the field call for an advance; they are pledged to it. By every quality of true generalship, by every token of faith in God and obligation to the native Church they must go forward. What is the supreme duty of the hour? Prayer to the Lord of the harvest. The church should come to her knees for the wisdom of God and the power of the Holy Ghost." Shall we not heed the call to go forward looking to God in prayer.

We ask you to note also this admonition given by the Secretaries of the Parent Board: "There is a marked tendency to advance the claims of work done by sight rather than that which lays demand upon our faith. In this way unconsciously undue emphasis has been laid upon Domestic Missions."

The Board calls attention to the following:

1. Hereafter the business of this Board will be closed on the third day of the session of the Conference in order that its final report may be made in due time to the Conference.

2. We very much appreciate the presence, address and encouragement of Dr. Walter R. Lambuth during the session of this Conference.

3. The present Conference Secretary of Missions will act in that capacity during the next conference year.

4. Early collections are absolutely necessary. We insist that collections be taken, especially for Domestic Missions, in November in order that preachers in charge of Home Missions may be paid any time during the year with the approval of the Presiding Elder of the District in which they may labor.

5. All our preachers should be distributors of missionary literature, such as tracts, leaflets and papers. They should see to it that "The World for Christ" be in every home, and that "The Review of Missions" has a wide circulation.

6. Missionary mass meetings are the order of the day. Let each preacher in charge see that they are held in his station or circuit according to disciplinary provision.

7. Rev. T. F. Taliaferro, our former Conference Secretary, deserves our thanks for agitating the question of more aggressive work in the interest of missions.

8. The Board has had no definite information in regard to the men and arrangement of the work in our mission fields; they have therefore done the best they could in making allowances.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The report of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society for the fiscal year March, 1895, to March, 1896, to Kentucky Annual Conference in session at Somerset, Ky., is as follows:

Number of Adult Societies, 91; new societies, 6; members, 1397; new members, 249. Young People's and Juvenile Societies, 56; new societies, 12; members, 1283. Total number of societies, 147; total membership, 2680; life members, 149; honorary life members, 6; life patrons, 1.

As compared with last year we have an advance of 188 members above all losses. The collections for the year are $3,565, being an increase of $66 over the year previous. Besides this money for foreign work, the salary of the Conference Organizer, which was provided for during six months, when after that our hearts turned with eager desire toward the "Belle Bennett Chair" endowment for the Scarritt Bible and Training School in Kansas City, Mo. It is our misfortune that our desires sometimes out run our possibilities, as in the present instance, when as one whom the "King delighted to honor," we would have given expression of our loving regard for our President in figures of handsome proportions, still we are obliged to be satisfied with less. The collection was $308.84.

We take pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to our brethren for their kindness and interest in the furtherance of our work, and more so yet to their devoted wives who are almost without exception in our ranks; but the fact remains that while there are more than fifteen thousand women and girls within the bounds of the Kentucky Conference, there are less than three thousand in the W. F. M. Society, and it is one of the "institutions of the church"; therefore, we earnestly beg our honored brethren that they call attention with renewed diligence to this important branch of church work to the end "that the Kingdoms of the world may become the Kingdoms of our Lord."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY WASHINGTON BRUCE, Cor. Sec.

Vanceburg, Ky.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

At no time since the organization of this very excellent arm of our service has the demand upon its strength been so far beyond its power to perform.

In not a single instance have we been able to give as great assistance to deserving applicants as we would have desired, and as claims presented deserved. But until our people meet the assessments for this work in full, many worthy ones claiming a hand of help, must be turned empty away. To divide the small sum at our disposal into too many fragments would be to give crumbs without comfort and help to any.

Certainly no claims upon the people of our Zion are more deserving of the most liberal contributions.

Is it not indeed strange that many congregations, whose very existence in organized and domiciled capacity, while able and willing to present some small amounts for the other "collections," have little or almost nothing to offer as a testimony of their gratitude for help from this Board?

Let it be said now, once for all, that the work done by the Board of Church Extension is second to none. Let us give to it a proper and reasonable portion of our assistance.

Allow me to quote from the report of the Corresponding Secretary: "With the limited means at the disposal of the Gen eral and Conference Boards, 407 churches were relieved during the year ending March 31, 1896, an average of $180 each being paid them. Had the $100,000 asked for in the assessment been given us, 240 other churches could have been paid a like amount."

Will not the brethren put forth even greater effort to raise their assessments in full for the ensuing year?

In order to assist in the circulation of the "Church Extension Bulletin," we have appropriated the sum of $10.47 for that purpose.

After the most patient inquiry and examination concerning applications for aid, we have made appropriations as follows:

Price's Chapel, Nelson county, Kentucky	$ 50 00
Hebron, Lincoln " "	50 00
Lancaster, Garrard " "	150 00
Fairview, Bracken " "	50 00

Owenton, Owen county " "	100 00
Farmers, Rowan " "	75 00
Morehead, Rowan " "	30 00
For Church Extension Bulletin	10 47

Total amount distributed. $ 590 47

The sum of $3,000 is assessed upon the Conference by the Parent Board, and is distributed to the districts as follows:

Lexington District	$ 580 00

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S PARSONAGE AND HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

Report of Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society of Kentucky Conference to the Annual Conference in session at Somerset:

Our Parsonage and Home Mission Society is no longer struggling for existence. During the past year there has been growth in interest and work. Fields of work are presenting themselves that have been waiting, as it were, for the ripening of the work.

Kentucky Conference has 39 adult, three young people's, and ten juvenile societies; total number of members, 715. Sixteen societies have been organized during the year.

One parsonage aided in the Conference to the amount of $200.00, at Alexandria, Campbell county, Covington District.

Total amount reported for special work, aside from collection for the Sue Bennett Memorial School, $398. Our school at London, Ky, to which Kentucky Conference Society pledged $5,000, has all been raised but about $150. A recent report from the General Secretary shows that Kentucky Conference carried off the palm as to special amounts raised, giving as much as all the other Conferences unitedly.

Shall we not feel honored to be counted as members of this great connectional organization, and endeavor to spread this mission work through our entire Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS KATE PETRY,

Conference Cor. Sec'y.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Report of the Board of Education of Kentucky Wesleyan College:

SOMERSET, Ky., Sept. 18, 1896.

To the Kentucky Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South:

The Board of Education of the Kentucky Wesleyan College beg leave to report as follows:

First. A marked improvement in the general tone of public sentiment in reference to the value and success of the institution.

Second. A better understanding and appreciation of the absolute necessity of the work proposed by the College, in fitting our young people for usefulness in life generally, and especially for equipping and qualifying a body of young and vigorous graduates on which the Church may draw confidently for a consecrated and competent ministry in future years.

Third. A decided advance in the attendance, say 25 per cent., over last year in the College at Winchester, and on enrollment 140 pupils at Campton and Burnside.

The faculty elected by the Board for the ensuing year is as follows:

E. H. Pearce, A. M. D. D., to the Presidency of the College and to fill the chair of Psychology, and Ethics and the Bible; D. W. Batson, A. M., Professor of Natural Science; W. H. Garnett, P. H. B., Professor of Mathematics and French; B. F. Spencer, A. M., Professor of Greek and German; Marvin West, A. M., Professor of Latin and History; W. T. Buckner, Principal of the Academic Department; G. B. Burner, Professor of Typewriting and Shorthand; T. W. Watts, Professor of Elocution; Albert F. Oglesby, Director of Department of Physical Culture; John R. Deering, Bible Lectureship; Judge M. J. Durham, Lectureship in Civics.

The co-education feature has proved to be eminently successful. The number of young ladies in attendance having increased 40 per cent.

Good boarding is furnished at the Dormitory at the rate of $2.00 per week, $8.00 per month; in private houses at $3.00 per week, $12.00 per month.

Local option has been carried in the county and city by a large majority the past summer.

Students from the College have taken equal honors in the Universities of the East and North with those of the best Colleges in the land in the past year.

The College Y. M. C. A. is a potent factor for good in the institution, and has had a year of unusual success. They report 14 conversions under their ministry in the city prison, and 25 of the students were converted last year in the religious services of the church and college.

Scriptures are daily expounded in the morning devotional exercises. No cases of expulsion or disciplinary action have been before the faculty.

Six annual Conferences were represented in the attendance last year.

There is much to make us thankful in reviewing the work of the past year, and hopeful in looking forward to the future work of our educational institutions. We report as follows on the Endowment Fund:

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The cause of education is one vital to the church, and we cannot hope to succeed without recognizing this fact and fully adjusting ourselves to the work of providing fullest facilities for the education of our young people along the lines of mental and moral culture.

We have come to the time for the recognition of the fact that in order to the best end, we must adopt the best means by putting the work upon the connectional basis, and correlating our institutions of learning so that we may have unity in action.

The General Board of Education has, according to the action of our last General Conference, been duly chartered, and the General Secretary, Rev. R. J. Bigham, D. D., is faithfully at work in the field, and calls for the hearty co-operation of the church represented by the several annual conferences. At his request, as representing the desire of the General Board, we recommend the appointment of a Conference Secretary of Education, and nominate George H. Means for that office.

We rejoice at the prosperity of the Kentucky Wesleyan College and the two schools at Burnside and Campton, which promise to be important factors in our educational work and feeders for our college at Winchester. The General Board has assessed the amount of $288 upon this Conference as our portion of the general assessment upon the church for education. We also recommend the assessment for Paine and Lane Institutes of $400 to be duly distributed among the districts. We further recommend that the sum of $2712 for Kentucky Wesleyan College, and $288 for the general fund be assessed upon the Conference. The Bishop presiding is respectfully requested to make the following appointments: Rev. E. H. Pearce, D. D., to the Presidency of Kentucky Wesleyan College; Rev. C. Pope, President of Millersburg Female College; Rev. J. W. Hughes, President Asbury College; Rev. T. J. Dodd, Principal Dodd Select High School, and Rev. J. L. Clark, Principal Burnside Academy. During the year, $937.42 has been raised for Kentucky Wesleyan College; $112.33 for the general work, and $149.84 for the Paine and Lane Institutes. The educational statistics are:

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board respectfully submits the following report:

During the year the Board has helped all the needy Sunday Schools within the bounds of the Conference that have solicited aid. The report of the Treasurer below will show what schools have been assisted and to what extent. The members of the Board wish to express their thanks to the brethren of the Middlesboro District who have promptly ordered supplies for the destitute Sunday Schools upon their respective charges, thereby enabling the Board to intelligently put our literature where it would do the most good. In the absence of a field agent the Board largely depends upon this ministerial co-operation.

The Board would earnestly request the observance of Children's Day anniversary and urge the importance of a liberal collection on that day in order to meet the increasing demands upon the Board for aid. We regret to say that only thirty-five of the charges have reported this year.

The Board recommends that each Presiding Elder observes par. 243 of the Discipline concerning the holding of a Sunday School Conference annually in his District.

The Board recommends the adoption of the memorial of the Maysville District Conference, referred to it by the Conference, making Sunday School Superintendents members ex-officio of their respective District Conferences. Below will be found the report of the Treasurer.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

BRETHREN OF THE KENTUCKY ANNUAL CONFERENCE:—Your committee on Books and Periodicals offer the following report: The report of the book agents of our publishing house shows gratifying progress. The total business of the year amounted to $350,512.66; the gain in assets, $50,393.73; the capital as per ledger, $708,760.50.

We notice that while the business of the House was a shade less than last year, the increase in assets this year is $5,516.54 more than the increase of assets last year. The agents have set aside for the superannuates of our Conference the same amount as last year; namely $20,000.

Twenty-eight new books and booklets have been published this year. Two of them we would call especial attention to as they are calculated to deepen the interest of our young people in missions. They are "Child Life in our Mission Fields" by Mrs. Daisy Lamberth and Miss Kate Harlan, and a "Young People's History of the Chinese," by Dr. W. G. E. Cunningham. The catalogue of the Publishing House is very complete, and we wish our people would keep a catalogue and order their books of the House.

There has been splendid improvement during the last few years in our missionary publications. "The Review of Missions" is strong and rich. The letters from our brethren on the foreign field bring us in close view of this great struggle between light and darkness. The articles ably written and the fresh and full array of facts are not only inspiring, but furnish the best material our preachers can get with which to quicken the sluggish conscience of our people upon this question so dear to our Saviour's heart. "The World for Christ" is a gem—beautifully illustrated, bristling with facts, melting by pathos and sparkling with the freshest thoughts—issued monthly at the wonderfully low price of ten cents a year. It goes forth already into nearly fifty thousand homes and ought to be in every home in Southern Methodism.

"The Christian Advocate" maintains well its excellent literary and religious character. It has not yet the wide circulation that we wish. We feel that we must make more diligent effort to place a copy in every Methodist home. Some of our people are taking illustrated and inferior papers because they are cheaper and more persuasively advertised. We ought to remember that the "Advocate" is our church property and its official organ, and that a generous patronage is the only means of reducing its price and so extending its benefits and influence to our utmost bounds. The high character of the paper, the nature of its work, the needs of our people, the appropriation of its profits and our obligations as preachers all unite in the demand for earnest and persistent effort to enlarge the subscription list. It may be difficult to do so; it will be very culpable indeed for us to leave it undone. May this coming year see the interesting face of the "Advocate" in many a home as yet unfamiliar with it.

"The Epworth Era" ought to be in the hands of all our preachers, local and travelling, and by them introduced in all our Leagues and in every family of the church. It is edited with brilliancy and forcefulness. We have every reason to regard that the genius of the editor will be wholly devoted to the great work committed to his care and that there will be nothing in its columns to mar the exquisite beauty of its composition, or to qualify its testimony for Christ or its fealty to the doctrines and discipline of our beloved and divinely honored church. We therefore recommend it heartily to pastors, our Leagues and the entire church.

We have especial pleasure in the success and ability of our "Review." Its size, frequency, mechanical beauty, scholarly force and freshness is a pledge of continued popularity. The able body of its contributors furnish quite a variety of timely topics. The book stream flowing from the world's press is thoroughly examined and sampled by literary experts. Intelligent ministers must find it difficult to deny themselves the delights of this able periodical. Few such laymen need to do without it. The "Review" is good reading for all thoughtful and cultured people. Our Sunday-school literature is good and growing better. "The Magazine" now has a circulation of thirty-three thousand and is ably edited by the best talent procurable. We suggest that the preachers endeavor to get all our teachers to take it.

"The Visitor" is an excellent paper: has been greatly improved. It is the only paper for our Sunday School children of the intermediate grades. Let us put it in every home where there are children. We deem it very important for our schools to read our own literature. But we suggest that instead of increasing the assets quite so largely, it would be well for us to issue this literature at the lowest possible price in order to compete more successfully with other publishing houses.

JOHN R. DEERING, Chairman.

D. E. BEDINGER, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The committee on "Bible Cause" beg to submit the following report: If we shall be able to invest this report with new life, commensurate in a small degree with the importance of the great work of bringing to the consideration of our people, young and old, the value of the Bible, God's expressed will, His plans and purposes concerning us, His children, we shall feel grateful. In the first place, let us get this book in our homes; its cost makes it available, its worth makes it indispensable. The second and next important place is in the Sunday School. Every member of the Sunday School should have a Bible of his own; then in your literature make this your text-book. It is hardly less valuable to the merchant or lawyer than to the preacher of the gospel. The injunction to "Search the Scriptures" applies with more force to the man of the Nineteenth century than ever before, in making the suggestions practical.

Resolved, That we invoke the aid of the pastors on our various charges. Don't let this collection be secondary, but begin early in the Conference year to look after the interest of the Bible Cause.

We respectfully recommend the continuance of that par-excellent Agent of the Bible, Dr. Savage.

Respectfully submitted,

A. REDD, Chairman.

C. F. ONEY, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

Your committee on Gospel Temperance beg leave to make the following report:

Whereas, God says: "No drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of God," and all laws legalizing drunkard-making are sinful, and although our fight as a church is non-political, yet we are not guiltless if we fail to encourage all righteous efforts to make good laws and place righteous men in office to execute them.

Whereas, We believe every other issue pales before the destruction of the liquor traffic, because of the direct and indirect loss of $1,200,000,000 to the American people yearly, $8,000,000 in gold going to England from brewery investors in this country.

Whereas, There are laws, both State and Federal, that protect this drunkard-making business, and we have received a request from the "General Baptist Association of Kentucky," in session at Bowling Green, Ky., June 20-22, 1896, to appoint a committee of five to act conjointly with like committees from other like bodies to memorialize the State Legislature to so amend our State prohibition laws so as not to defeat the will of the people in prohibition counties by protecting the lawless; and

Whereas, The Federal laws defeat the will of the people in local option counties and municipalities by issuing permits to sell liquor in such places, and there will be a bill before Congress this year to altar such laws; and to this Conference and asks that two delegates be appointed to attend the 1896 convention in Washington, D. C., December 8-10.

Whereas, We rejoice, thank God and take courage for the aggressive gospel and legal temperance work done this Conference year, viz: Clark, Scott, Pulaski, Grant and other counties and Pineville (Bell county) all voting legal prohibition; and give praise to the Almighty that seventy-five counties in this grand old Commonwealth of Kentucky have been redeemed from this alcoholic demon, Resolved. 1st, We will do all in our power to secure total abstinence for the individual.

2nd, We will, as individual christians, assist all righteous efforts looking towards eradicating all laws, both State and Federal, that protect the liquor traffic, and pray God to give us righteous men to execute our laws.

3rd, That the following committee of five be appointed to co-operate with like committee from other religious bodies: Geo. W. Young, Julius E. Wright, A. Redd, C. J. Nugent, J. R. Deering.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee to examine District Conference Records report as follows:

There were only three records before the committee, those of Lexington, Danville and Shelbyville Districts being absent.

The Covington Record is in excellent condition, save some imperfections in spelling and wording.

The Middlesboro Record is in fair order. We note two errors: two resolutions which are embodied in the minutes are recorded again in the appendix as reports of committees and marked "A" and "B" respectively. Also some careless spelling and arrangement of words in sentences.

The Maysville Record is quite copious and indicates commendable diligence on the part of its keeper; but there are several points noted for criticism.

The hours set by the Conference for the gathering and adjourning of its morning sessions are 8:30 and 11 o'clock, not including the preaching service, which, in our opinion, is properly a part of the Conference proceedings.

The expression, "song from Bro. Cook," appears more than once, by which is meant "song led by Bro. Cook."

The name of town Owingsville is misspelled "Owensville."

In one prominent instance the name of Sharpsburg and Bethel charge is written simply "Sharpsburg."

The singular, license, is written where the plural, licenses, should be; and the singular, license, is regularly, but improperly, construed with a plural verb.

Respectfully submitted,

F. A. SAVAGE, Chairman.

W. D. WELBURN, Secretary.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF FUND SOCIETY.

The Society has the names of one hundred and twelve members. Quite a number of these have not yet paid the initiation fee of $3 each, but most every one of these has promised to do so at an early date. Whole amount collected from initiation and dues, $320; appropriated during the past year to D. E. Bedinger, $100; balance in treasury, $220; amount due from members about $150. At a meeting of the Society Saturday, September 17, 1896, the above report was adopted; the officers of last year re-elected, and resolutions passed providing for three thousand copies of the Constitution and By-Laws to be printed and distributed; and another resolution asking the preachers of the Conference to present the claims and principles of the Society to the people of their charges. The organization has received much favor during the first year of its existence and has hope of large usefulness.

HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION.

One year ago while our Conference was in session at Winchester we resolved ourselves into a Historical Association for the purpose of collecting material for a History of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Kentucky. I was elected your Secretary and charged with the duty of collecting and arranging these materials. Work was begun at once. Though I have been too far from any libraries and too closely confined by my pastoral work to make the progress I had hoped to make, yet progress has been made. Many valuable books and papers have been secured or located, and many valuable contributions have been made by living brethren.

I find great difficulty, however, in getting our brethren to write. Appeal after appeal has proved of no avail. They will not even send me their own biographical sketches. A book has been secured and set apart for these sketches, and call after call has been made. But up to the present date that book contains seven sketches, one of them being that of your Secretary, and two of them are of persons not now members of our Conference. Our preachers seem to think it a tremendous strain upon their modesty to tell me when and where they were born and under what circumstances they got into the ministry to which they have been called.

I desire to thank those brethren who have assisted me in my work. I ask their continued co-operation and earnestly plead for greater interest on the part of all.

Kentucky Conference Historical Association.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The proper observance of the Christian Sabbath is one of the vital questions of the hour. Nature and law demand one day in seven as a day of rest. The violation of the Sabbath is general and far-reaching. The excursion train, the local freight, the saloon with its front or back door open, the base ball, the variety show, pleasure trips, christian people traveling on the Lord's day, patronizing and reading the secular papers, etc.—all in violation of the sanctity of the Sabbath, and the law governing it, directly or indirectly; all these are alarming.

The fear is that we have so long neglected the protection of this holy day that it has gotten beyond our control. In many localities the continental Sabbath of Europe exists; yet the interest involved is of such vital importance to the family, the church, the nation, that an earnest, united and persistent effort should be made to reclaim the day, and enforce its proper observance. Let the mother in the nursery, the Young People's Society, the pulpit, the religious press, the law of the Book, and any other proper agency be faithfully and earnestly employed until we have the Sabbath of the olden time in its sanctity and purity.

ORPHANS' HOME.

Your committee on Orphan's Home respectfully submit the following report: We find from statements made by the Agent, Mrs. M. E. Brewer, and from report of Treasurer that the Home is at the present time in sore need of funds. We urge upon our people and preachers that they give more liberally of their means to the support of this worthy object. We urge upon those who have made subscriptions that they pay these sums as soon as possible. This matter is of great importance and should not be neglected.

Resolved, That we give to Mrs. M. E. Brewer our constant support, and open our pulpits to her that she may have an opportunity to present this worthy object of our care.

In connection with this we submit the following report of the Agent for the past year: Collected in cash, $1472.12; expenses, $96.80; notes taken, $1711.65; total in cash and notes minus expenses, $3086.97.

We append Treasurer's report for Publication in the minutes.

MINUTES OF LEGAL CONFERENCE.

SOMERSET, KY., SEPTEMBER 21, 1896.

The Legal Conference of Kentucky Conference M. E. Church, South, met in the Court House at Somerset, Ky., September 21, 1896, at 12 o'clock M., the President, Dr. R. Hiner, in the chair.

The minutes of the former meeting were read.

Verbal reports from J. Reeves on Jno. Demaree Fund and R Demaree Fund made.

The following committees were elected in place of those deceased: Jno. Demaree Fund—F. K. Struve, F. C. French, W. D. Hope. R. Demaree Fund—F. K. Struve, F. C. French.

Committee on Drury Knox reported and was continued. Preacher in charge of Carrollton added to the committee.

Committee on Morgan Will Case reported. Report adopted and committee continued.

COMMITTEE ON MORGAN WILL CASE.

We find from the records in Campbell County Court that all bequests of the will of J. M. Morgan have been paid, except the provision for distributing balance left of his estate after the several specific amounts have been paid. Of this balance, the will provides that one-fourth shall be devoted to Church Extension in M. E. Church, South; one-fourth to Foreign Missions in M. E. Church, South, and one-half to Domestic Missions in M. E. Church, South. The money is bequeathed to the Agent of the Publishing House, to be distributed by the proper authorities. The record shows that Mr. Morgan's administrators paid on August 10, 1893, to Agent of Publishing House $800.00, and December 1, 1893, $500.00. According to the will $650.00 of that money belongs to the Kentucky Conference.

Unpaid resources of the estate are as follows: Cash, $282.20; good notes, near $200.00; one hundred ($100.00) due from sale of West Virginia land, and 143 shares of turnpike stock, the value of which can hardly be estimated.

Some attorney fees and other expense are to come out of these amounts before they are turned over by the administrators to the Agent of Publishing House for distribution.

MEMOIRS.

Report of "Committee on Memoirs" to Kentucky Annual Conference, Sept. 20, 1896:

REV. T. J. MCINTYRE.

Thomas J. McIntyre was born in Fleming county, Kentucky, April 6, 1838. Was educated in the county schools and at Dr. George S. Savage's school, at Millersburg. After his school days he went into the store of Chappel, Bruce & McIntyre, at Carlisle, where he remained until his marriage to Miss Nannie McClintock, of Millersburg, February 4, 1864, when he went into business for himself in Millersburg.

His wife died May 12, 1870; he wound up his business and began his preparation for the calling toward which his inclinations had always turned, that of the ministry. He was licensed to preach in 1872, but did not enter the Conference until 1873. He married again October 3, 1871, to Miss M. H. Poynter, who, with five children of her own, and one daughter by the first marriage, survive him. In his Conference relations and work, ever congenial to him, he passed through nearly twenty-four years of service pleasantly and successfully. He had only seven charges in his entire ministry. They were College Hill (Madison county), LaGrange, Bloomfield, Taylorsville, Shelbyville, Middlesboro District, and Simpsonville, all but two in Shelbyville District. We doubt if this record can be surpassed—twenty-four consecutive years and only seven charges, and six of these charges among the best in the Conference. This history of itself is a commentary upon his popularity and his usefulness. The church prospered under his administration, and he was a popular pastor. He did not confine himself to merely ministerial offices in his pastoral relations, but brought to bear upon the people a strong personality outside the pulpit and was able to advise along many lines and in many emergencies. We think his success was largely due to this feature of his pastorate. Many preachers feel that when they chat and pray with a family it is all they can or ought to do. He having a larger experience in matters of business than most brethren, was enabled thereby to advise and counsel, and by such advice to materially aid as well as comfort those in the hard places of life. He had an unusual grasp upon the details of his charge and knew how to manage men, readily overcoming difficulties and removing obstacles.

As a preacher he was in the main instructive and inspiring to the people he served. He was an industrious worker at the Conference sessions, his hands being full of the business which belongs to that body. He was judicious and faithful; his affairs so managed, his household so governed, that the ministry was not blamed. His family reflects honor upon his name and his people cherish his memory.

He came to his death after an illness of three months, induced by a liver trouble. Fully conscious of the serious nature of the disease he prepared himself for the worst and calmly waited the providential outcome. The day before his death he said, "I am ready to die, but shall live as long as possible." He died suddenly and easily and went to his long rest without fear and without protest. His sun went down without a cloud. He died March 10, 1896, at ten o'clock. The funeral services were held in his church at Simpsonville, March 12, in the presence of a great company of his friends. He was buried in his own lot in the beautiful cemetery at Millersburg, among the friends of his youth. The people of his charge at Simpsonville gave him every needed attention, and paid all proper respect to his memory after his death. We could not conceive of better circumstances under which to set sail for that "sunbright clime."

JNO. R. DEERING.

REV. WILEY TAUL POYNTER, D. D.

Wiley Taul Poynter, son of Thomas and Angeline Taul Poynter, was born in Montgomery county, Kentucky, on August 14, 1838. His early life was spent on the farm, and he there formed the habit of industry which characterized him all during life. He received his educational training in his youth at the then celebrated school of B. B. Sayre, at Frankfort, Ky., and here laid the scholastic foundation on which he afterwards built so well and firmly fixed on which he was enabled so successfully to train young minds to higher thought and life.

Brother Poynter was "Admitted on Trial" into the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, at the session held in Shelbyville, Ky., September 18-24, 1867, in the class with F. W. Noland, D. H. Marimon, B. F. Bristow and Robt. Hurt. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Geo. F. Pierce, at Frankfort, Ky., in 1868, and Elder by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, at Cynthiana in 1869.

His entire ministerial life was spent in the Kentucky Conference, being stationed at Winchester, 1867-68; Millersburg, 1869-72; Paris, 1873-76, and Carrollton, 1877-8.

In 1879 he retired from the pastorate to take charge of Science Hill Academy for young ladies, which he conducted with rare skill and success until he closed his life work and was called to rest.

Brother Poynter was more than an ordinary man in more respects than one. He had a vigorous mind, and was a clear, bold and independent thinker, tenaciously clinging to what he believed to be true, and never leaving any doubt as to his position on any subject on which he expressed himself, either upon the Conference floor or through the press.

He often aroused opposition, but such was his avoidance of personalities that his sharpest thrusts left no pain to create personal foes; so that however much one might differ from him, such was his honesty and fairness that he left you feeling that you had been in controversy with a cultivated, honest, christian gentleman, who won your respect by his spirit and manner, both in debate and in personal contact with him.

As a preacher Brother Poynter was clear, strong and practical, ever stressing a life rather than a theory, and as a man he exemplified his teaching by a daily walk clean and morally beautiful.

In the home, on the street, and in the presence of the congregation he was the same. Ever cheerful, and with a heart in sympathy with the suffering, he was ready at all times to relieve the needy and comfort the sorrowing. While his sermons were clear, strong and comforting, he was diligent and faithful to every trust committed to him as a pastor, so that every pulpit from which as pastor he had preached to the people was freely open to him and the people heard him gladly.

It was as an educator that, perhaps, he most impressed his generation. The seventeen years which he spent at the head of Science Hill were years of successful labor in preparing young womanhood for the higher practical duties of life, so far as christian culture, thorough in character, could accomplish this end. His idea of woman's sphere and her need in order to enable her to fill it, was high; and his aim was to thoroughly fit her for greatest possible practical usefulness in life. In this great work he endeared himself to his pupils, and not only in Kentucky, but in other States, many womanly hearts were made sad and eyes made wet with tears when the news went forth unto them that the faithful, kind and loving preceptor was no more.

Soon after our last Conference session, somewhat suddenly, Bro. Poynter's health began to fail, and after months of gradual decline and much suffering, in the early morning of July 30th the great, loving heart of Wiley Taul Poynter ceased to beat and the spirit of the strong, honest man, the genial brother and faithful minister went up to God.

On August 1st, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, we laid his worn body to rest in the beautiful city of the dead at Lexington, while the golden light of the sinking sun gave lovely prophecy of the light which will never fade, and the life which will never end in the better country, where we trust to meet our brother in the palace of the Great King.
